Program Closure and Weather Advisory Update

Dear Discovery Early Learning & Care Families,

Thank you for your flexibility and understanding this morning as we navigated the decision to close all our sites due to today's unforeseen weather conditions.

Our Program Supervisors sent group emails to families at each site as soon as we received direction from the school board. However, we did experience some bounced-back emails. If you did not receive the notification, your Program Supervisor will reach out tomorrow to confirm your contact information.

Additionally, we posted updates on our Facebook page immediately after the closure was announced. Please continue to follow us there for real-time updates.

Since the decision to close was ours, families scheduled for today will not be charged for the day.

We hope this weather system moves on soon and that spring truly arrives! We anticipate reopening tomorrow morning. As always, the safety of your children and our team remains our top priority.

Stay safe, and we appreciate your continued support.
